

NEED AN INTERPRETER?

If English is not your primary language and you are unable to understand or communicate in English, the court will appoint an interpreter for you for all court hearings and certain court-ordered or court-sponsored services. Interpreters are available in all languages.

Visit <http://mdcourts.gov/courts/courtlanguageservices.html> for information about the language services offered by the Maryland Courts.